LEGAL AUTHORITY
Resolution No. 08-12-09 Adopted by the San Joaquin Valley Air Pollution Control District Governing Board December 18, 2008.

MEMBERSHIP
Each Board of Supervisors of the eight (8) member counties shall appoint two (2) members to the CAC. One (1) member shall represent agriculture or other industry and one (1) member shall represent environmental interest groups. A City Selection Committee organized in each County of the Valley pursuant to Article II (commencing with s50270) Chapter 1, Part 1, Division 1, Title 5 of the Government Code shall each appoint one (1) member to represent cities of that County. Each appointing body shall appoint an alternate member for each primary member appointed. CAC members must be bona-fide residents of any County within the District. Current voter registration and residential mailing address, inter alia, may be considered as evidence of residence. Determination of residence shall be at the sole discretion of the voting membership of the District’s Governing Board. In addition CAC members shall be qualified as follows:

A. Members appointed by the City Selection Committees may be persons duly elected to a public office.

B. Agriculture or Industry members appointed by the respective Boards of Supervisors shall be representatives of legally established private enterprises operated for monetary profit within the Valley.

C. Environmental members appointed by the respective Boards of Supervisors shall be representatives of recognized environmental interest groups.

D. Members shall demonstrate interest by attending CAC meetings. Failure to attend three consecutive CAC meetings in one year’s time without excuse shall be cause for disqualification. In those cases where an appointing authority has appointed an alternate member, that alternate members attendance shall constitute attendance by the primary member. Granting excuse for attending CAC meetings shall be at the sole discretion of the CAC Chair.
